*BERGMANN ASSOCIATES'
MELCHER MACK TO CHAIR NATIONAL STANDARDS COMMITTEE*

NEWS RELEASE

Rochester, N.Y., July 23, 2009 – Melcher Mack, Manager of CAD Systems for Bergmann Associates, has been selected to Chair the National Building Information Modeling (BIM) Task Team. This high profile appointment is under the National Computer Aided Design Standard which governs all CAD standards and practices in the United States and Canada. In this role, Mr. Mack will be responsible for leading and directing National research for the use of Building Information Modeling throughout the Architecture / Engineering industry as well as the creation of BIM standards and practices.

Mr. Mack has led Bergmann Associates' CAD and Design Technology Group for the past 10 years and has been instrumental in standardizing, training and implementing for the latest in design software technology. "We are thrilled that Melcher has been chosen to lead this very important committee which will undoubtedly impact how architects and engineers use Building Information Modeling in the future," said Bob McCubbin, Bergmann's Director of AE Services.
